In Bellingham Public Schools, our schools and classrooms implement social and emotional learning (SEL) in a variety of ways. With the adoption of SEL curriculum last spring, practices have taken hold across the district. These practices enhance and develop the character-based outcomes in The Bellingham Promise (see page 2), those that are not taught in a standard textbook or on a worksheet. Social-

Sustainable Sehome cafeteria, first in district

The rebuilt Sehome High opened with not only new classroom spaces, but to a bright cafeteria with new practices in sustainability. For the first time in the recent history of Bellingham Public Schools, students are using real utensils, plates and bowls, replacing the single use plastic, disposable milk cartons and old dishware or paper products. Milk is now
