2. Please note commendable progress over the last year.

The Aspiring Administrators program continues to be an excellent method to train, develop and retain a robust cohort from which to promote new leadership.

There is ample evidence that the superintendent ensures regular policy development and maintenance regarding leadership.

The board is impressed with all of the work accomplished last year, especially the safety and security capital improvement projects.

3. Please note areas for additional improvement.

None.

4. Comments on the report itself.

Great report easy to read and we appreciate the bold font for new items.

5. Possible changes to the policy.

None.
